Yuen Method™ & Quantum Physics

To fully understand how the Yuen Method™ of Chinese Energetic Medicine works, we look to the field of Quantum Physics. This is a branch of science that deals with the smallest discreet and indivisible units of energy and matter called quanta, hence the name “Quantum Physics.”

In the late 19th and early 20th century, the scientific community discovered that matter was not solid. It is comprised of atoms which have a nucleus (consisting of protons & neutrons) and mostly empty space with a few orbiting electrons. Further investigation revealed that orbiting electrons have tendencies only to exist and are not tiny hard balls of matter. Depending on the instrument used to measure the electrons in an experiment, they can appear as particles or waves. The concept that the act of observation and measurement affects an experiment is known as the Observer Effect. The world we experience is dependent on our observation, meaning that things exist in potential until they are actualized by human consciousness.

It is now generally accepted that energy and matter are related to each other at the quantum particle level and that an energy wave/particle duality exists within the quantum field of infinite potentiality.

The Yuen Method™ is a revolutionary breakthrough in the field of bio-quantum physics. The Premise of the Yuen Method™ of Chinese Energetic Medicine is that one’s quality of life is dependent on the expression of the information contained within the bio energetic field.

The Yuen Method™ effects changes in the local reality through the application of focused thought energy and attention at the quantum field level on the bio energetic field. The Yuen Method™ is extremely effective in creating immediate change because it works with all three levels of the quantum field simultaneously. These are the Microcosmic level, the Macrocosmic level and the Intrinsic Level and are often referred to as the Inner, Outer and In-between.

By aligning the probability waves that are currently creating your reality with your desired outcome, the Yuen Method™ provides you the opportunity to debug and reprogram your bio energetic field to correct or eliminate any undesirable results that you are experiencing in your life today. The Yuen Method™ achieves lasting results by bringing your bio energetic field back to its natural state of neutrality, sometimes referred to as zero point, where there is no separation or preference between all possibilities within the quantum field of infinite potential. The result returns control over your life back to you as the observer. The applications of this technique are limited only by the human imagination and reaches of the mind.

What's New?

Energy Paradigm Inc.

In March of 2007 when I first began taking clients for Yuen Method™ treatment sessions, I searched for a trade name and corporate identity that represented all that I had to offer clients through the Yuen Method™ and finally settled on Watersong Wellness. This trade name has served my company very well up to now, however it is no longer resonating with the scope and nature of the business. My little alternative medicine business has grown up into a corporation. Upon completing the Mastery Certification Level with Dr. Kam Yuen in November 2008, my transformation from Practitioner to Certified Practitioner & Instructor was complete.

As a result of this transformation and expanded focus to introduce the Yuen Method™ to as many mainstream people as I can, I decided to incorporate the company under a new name. Under this new corporate identity, I am committed to introducing as many people as possible to the power of this method and complete my mission of training an army of exceptional healers who will collectively work to eliminate the unnecessary pain and suffering of people around the globe. It is with great pleasure that I introduce to you Energy Paradigm Inc.

Ask Stephanie

“What is the Yuen Method™ and how does it™ work? “

The Yuen Method™ is a revolutionary alternative healing modality that blends knowledge of anatomy, physiology, kinesiology, chiropractic, qi gong, Feng Shui and quantum physics to eliminate or greatly minimize chronic pain, allergies, fear, depression and release old behavior patterns. It often delivers immediate and lasting results in 3 treatments or less.

Treatments can have profound and lasting effects on health, rejuvenation, self-esteem, positive attitude, better relationships, as well as increasing personal prosperity and wealth. They require absolutely no exercise, no drugs, no meditation, no devices, no hypnosis, and no religious beliefs.

The Yuen Method™ does not require physical touch to bring about change. You will not receive a diagnosis or be prescribed medication, nor will we recommend that you discontinue medication prescribed by a licensed medical practitioner. Instead, the Yuen Method™ uses applied kinesiology to locate and correct energetic weakness and blockages in the energy body. Once a person's energy body is strengthened, their physical body's natural healing ability takes over to bring about positive change.

The premise behind the Yuen Method™ is that a person's body functions like a computer. On an energetic level, we, as humans, are either strong or weak to any given issue or situation. Pain or discomfort in any area of our life is a sign that something is wrong with the flow of energy in our body. Humans are complex beings with multiple levels of consciousness. Energy healing simply works to make sure that all levels of consciousness are congruent so that pain and discomfort can be eliminated and personal goals can be attained.

Success Stories & Testimonials

Fibromyalgia

I attended your workshop at the Spring Festival of Awareness at Naramata in April. I am the woman with fibromyalgia. I had a treatment and I have been virtually pain free since. This is nothing short of a miracle. I have dealt with severe pain in my shoulders, neck and upper arms for more than 20 years. I have been taking Tylenol 3 and a sleeping pill every night for over 10 years. Sunday night after the treatment I slept without any medication.....and have not had to take any since....and this is 8 days later. I am extremely grateful to you and The Yuen Method™ for this new lease on life. Thank you directly from my heart.

Update: This individual continues to be virtually pain free 3 months later & counting. ☺

Real Estate Challenges Overcome

Here is something I know you will love to hear.... I went to the festival of awareness in April and I attended your workshop, I asked around and everyone said the Yuen session was their favorite. I attended and I was not disappointed, you told a story about needing to sell a home in Calgary at a time when nothing was selling and the price point made it even more challenging as it was over the one million dollar mark. I asked you to help me sell my house in Kelowna as there is currently 2-3 years of inventory already on the market. My neighbor's townhome took almost a year and a half to sell and that is indicative of the market here. Prices have drastically gone down and the market looks very bleak for sellers. I put my house up for sale last month and the first person who viewed it put a GOOD

OFFER, right down to no subjects and a great price. That took 10 days from the time I put it on the market to the time I had a sold sign out front. My boyfriend has the exact same condo next to me it has been for sale for a year without a single offer. I don't have new paint or carpet like some of my neighbours. It just doesn't make sense to me. I am sure that it is a testimony to the power of Yuen Method™. I know the Yuen Method™ works! I am proof!

Thank you, your work makes a huge difference!
